In the name of Allah , the Beneficent, the Merciful.

- 1.By the forenoon (after sunrise);
- 2.And by the night when it is still (or darkens)
- 3.Your Lord (O Muhammad) has neither forsaken you nor hated you.
4. And indeed the hereafter is better for you than the present (life of this world)
- 5.And verily, your Lord will give you (all i.e good) so that you shall be well pleased.

- 7.Did He not find you unaware (of the Qur'an ,its legal laws and prophet hood etc) and guided you?
- 8.And He found you poor, and made you rich(self-sufficient with self contentment, etc)
- 9.Therefore, treat not the orphan with oppression.
- 10.And repulse not the beggar ;
- 11.And proclaim the Grace of your Lord (i.e the prophet hood and all other Graces)

Commentary on the Surah

Suratul al Duha ('The morning Hours, Morning Bright') is the 93rd surah of the Qur'an with 11 Ayah (verses). The surah takes its name Ad-Duha from the very first word. This surah begins by invoking the morning and the night , meaning that God will act both during the day (when the Light of God is obvious) and the night (when it seems to man that God is absent).

The Qur'an comforts Prophet Muhammad with the message that God is not angered with him, nor has God abandoned him; indeed, God says He is pleased with him. It goes on saying that 'The Last will be better for you than the First' things will end better as they are now , meaning either (or both) in Muhammad's victories on earth , or in the Afterlife. To prove the point, the Qur'an asks prophet Muhammad if God has ever failed him.

(93:6) Did He not find you an orphan, so provided you shelter?

(93:7) He found you wandering, so gave you guidance?

(93:8) He found you in need, so made you prosperous?

The answer for all these is, of course Yes. Prophet Muhammad was in each of these three positions and has risen above them: when he was orphaned he was protected, when he was looking for answers they were given, and when he was without wealth he was provided for.

In conclusion, Allah has instructed Muhammad telling him how he should treat the creatures of God to repay for the favours he has done to him and how he should render thanks for the blessing He has bestowed on him, saying:

‘Therefore, as for the orphan protect him, as for the beggar, oppress him not. And as for thy Lord’s favour, declare it.

Topic: Hadith 7 of An-Nawawi's collection

An Ummul- Mu'mina, Umm Abdullahi Aishat radiyallahu anha Qalat: Qala Rasulla (SAW)

'Man Ahadatha fi amrina hadha ma laysa minhu fahuwa raddu.

Rawahul Bukhar wa Muslim.

Wa fi Riwayati li-Muslim. 'Man amila amalan laysa alaihi amarina fahuwa radddu'.

On the authority of Aisha (Mother of the believers),who said: The messenger of Allah(peace and blessings be upon him)said:

'He who innovates something in this matter of ours, that is not of it, will have it rejected.

Narrated by Bukhari and Muslim.

And in one version by Muslim it reads: 'He who does an act which our matter is not (in agreement) with, will have it rejected.'

Commentary on the Hadith.

This Hadith is used as a criterion for judging external actions or performance of Ibadah. If an action is not done in accordance with the Shariah or the sunnah of the prophet, sallallahu 'alayhi wasallam, it will be rejected and not accepted by Allah based on the text of this Hadith. This Hadith compliments Hadith 1 ,which was a criterion for judging the intentions or the internal actions of the heart. The scholars say that the acceptance of actions of Ibadah is based on the above two conditions:

i The Intention- The action should be done with sincerity, for the sake of only Allah.

ii It should be done in accordance with the sunnah of the prophet ,sallallahu 'alayhi wasallam.

This Hadith is related to a very important concept which is following the sunnah and violating this concept will lead to bida'ah.

Translation of the surah

1. By the fig and the olive tree.
2. And by mount Sinai
3. And by this secure city (Makkah)
4. We have certainly created man in the best of Stature,
5. Then We return him to the lowest of the low,
6. Except for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for they will have a reward uninterrupted.
7. So what yet causes you to deny the Recompense
8. Is not Allah the most just of judge?

Lesson from the surah

There are four meaningful oaths at the beginning of this surah to be as an introduction to an important statement.

It says:

‘By the fig and Olive’ ‘And (Mount) Tur or sinin’ ‘And this city of security (makkah) The term tin means ‘fig’ and the term zaytun means ‘Olive’ the same fruit that is the source of a useful oil.

The oaths are to these two well-known fruits or to something else. There is much difference of opinion among the commentators as to the exact meaning.

Some, of course , say that they mean the same two fruits that contain the extraordinary nutritive and creative properties. Some others believe that they refer to the two mountains on which the two cities of Damascus and Jerusalem are the lands where many great prophets of Allah have appeared. These two oaths coordinate with the third and fourth oaths that refer to the other sacred lands.

Some have also said that these two mountains are called /tin/‘fig’ and /Zaytun/ ‘Olive’ because the fig trees are cultivated on one and olives on the other. Again , some believe that /tin/‘fig’ refers to the time of Adam when he and Hauwa clothed themselves with the leaves of the fig tree, in Heaven, and /Zaytun/ ‘Olive’ refers to the last stage of the deluge at the time of Noah when he sent a pigeon out to search for a piece of land appearing after the flood and it came back bringing a small branch from an olive tree by which Noah understood that the flood was over and dry land had appeared , (hence the olive branch is a symbol of peace and security)

Furthermore, some think that the term /Tin/ refers to Noah’s mosque which was built on Mount Judi of the Arafat range and that /Zaytun/ ‘Olive’ refers to Jerusalem. The appearance of the verse, at a first glance, denotes to the two known fruits but with paying close attention to the following oaths they are meant to be two mountains or two sacred centers that are respected.

There is a tradition from the Holy prophet (SAW) which says that Allah selected four cities among all cities and He stated these first three verses about them. By the fig and Olive’ ‘And (Mount) Tur or sinin’ ‘And the city of security (Makkah) that /tin/ is Medina , /Zaytun/ is Jerusalem, /tur-i-sinin/ is Kufa and /Hath-al-balad-il-amin/ (the city of security) is Makkah.

“We have indeed created man in the best of moulds” The term /taqwin/ means to form something into an appropriate shape in a moderate regulation. The broadness of the meaning refers to the fact that Allah has created man proportionally in all aspects, both from the bodily point of view and from the spiritual and rational point of view, because he has settled all faculties in him and prepared him appropriately to cover a great path towards development.

Hence, the next verse, says: “Then We render him the lowest of the low”. As it is known, there are always deep valleys beside high mountains. Similarly, for man’s exalted position as Allah’s vicegerent, there is a grievous lowness, And why not? If man uses his faculties and follows Allah’s law, he will reach the high and noble destiny intended for him. But, if he rebels against Allah and using his talents and faculties, follows after evil, he will fall even lower than beast; the lowest of low. Save those who believe and do righteous deeds for them is a reward unending.

The next verse, addressing ungrateful Man who is careless about the signs and evidences of the resurrection, inquires; What then makes you reject thereafter the Last judgement?

The structure of your body, on the one hand and the structure of the endless universe ,on the other, all indicates that the fleeting life of this world cannot be the final goal of the creation or of this splendid, vast universe.

All of them are preliminary to a wider and more complete world ; and as the HolyQur'an points out the first form of creation warns you that.

“Is Allah not the Most just of judges” So, If we take the word /deen/ with the whole meaning of ‘religion’, this verse means: ‘Are Allah’s laws and decrees not wisest of all? Or Allah’s creation of Man is full of knowledge and wisdom in all respects; But , as it was said before, the first meaning seems more fitting.

According to a tradition from the holy prophet (SAW), whenever he recited surah Tin and after reciting the verse: ‘Is Allah not the most Just of judges’ He used to say ‘Yes, and I am the witness to this (Allah is the most just of judges).

Commentary of the Surah.

It is commonly known among the commentators that this surah is the first surah that was revealed to the holy prophet (SAW) of Islam. The contents of the surah also confirms this idea. Some have said that the first surah is Suratul fatiha or perhaps surah Muddathir, but again this is contrary to what is commonly taught.

First, this surah addresses the holy prophet (SAW) and commands him to read or proclaim (the message). Then , it refers to the creation of man, who is taught from the bounty and the Grace of Allah, the soul in him reaching out to knowledge sublime. And the instrument of it. The sanctified pen.

The lessons in the surah can be summarized as follows:

1. It is Suratul-Alaq
2. It is a makkan surah
3. The surah takes its name from a word in the second verse ('alaq')

4. The first five verses of this surah are universally accepted by all Muslims to be the first revelation revealed to the prophet in the cause of Hijrah in Makkah.
5. The revelation of the chapter marked the beginning of the prophet hood of Muhammad (SAW).
6. The Surah shows that knowledge is important for the development of man.
7. The surah states two attributes of Allah, the creator and cherisher.
8. The Divine attribute, Rabbu (Lord) indicates that man's physical and spiritual developments are gradual.
9. The surah states the source of knowledge, which is Allah.
10. It indicates that the Quran is to be read and its verses pondered over.
11. It shows that the pen will play a great role in disseminating knowledge.
12. The surah states that we shall return to God.
13. It teaches the Day of judgement.
14. It confirms the existence of hell and paradise.
15. It states that Allah sees all things.
16. In the hereafter, no person shall have any power except Allah.
17. Man must always draw near to Allah and worship Him.
18. It teaches against arrogance and boasting.

Topic: The principles of Al-Amanah(Trust), Adalah (Justice), Shurah (Mutual consultation) and Masuliyyah (Accountability)

Trust (Amana)

‘Allah commands you to render back the trust to those entitled to them’ The prophet reported saying ‘Whoever did not fulfill his trust and promise has no faith’ In another Hadith he said : A hypocrite has three characters ; When he talks he lies, when he makes a promise, he does not fulfill it , and when trust is bestowed upon him he betrays it; even if he joins in prayer, observes the fast and esteems himself a muslim.

Amanah therefore means trust. It is a very important concept in Islam. It can be seen from what we are entrusted with by our parents, teachers, fellow students friends e.t.c just to test one whether he is worthy of being trusted. Another example is appointing one as a trustee of an orphan’s property until he/she grows up or one appointed as a Treasurer of a society or organization or government official. It is therefore important for a muslim to recognize that any trust he is given is a test which he may pass or fail. He should try to fulfill his trust even if it means some inconveniences to him.

Adalah (Equality before the law)

It is a fundamental right of every person to be given fair and equal treatment in accordance with the Law whether rich or poor powerful or weak. It was reported that a man of a noble family was arrested for theft and the case was brought before the prophet and passed judgement on him immediately and his hand was amputated.
